

News of science!

Kniga M.

The official opponents were the manager of criminal law and criminology faculty of National Academy of Public Prosecutor's Office of Ukraine, Doctor of law sciences, professor Alexander Kalman and the dean assistant of the law faculty of Ivan Franko Lvov national university, Candidate of Jurisprudence, senior lecturer Vladimir Burdin.

Len' V.

On February, 20 in 2009 the successful defence of the Maxim Kniga's dissertation «Compulsory actions of medical character as means of the crime prevention» for reception of a scientific degree of the candidate of law sciences took place in the specialized academic council K 08.727.02 at the Dnepropetrovsk state university of interiors.

The scientific adviser was assistant chief of the scientific work institute, the Zaporizhia institute of law of the Dnepropetrovsk state university of interior, Candidate of law sciences, senior lecturer Valentine Len'.

Kalman A.

This dissertation is the first in Ukraine complex and system research of problems of compulsory actions of medical character application. Problems of the crime and other socially dangerous activity of insane persons prevention, criminal legal questions of application, continuation, change and stoppage of the marked actions were considered. Offers concerning the perfection of norms of criminal legislation which adjust the institute of compulsory actions of medical character were formulated.